Sacci Neck Strap

Art nr: 266042

Sacci Neck Strap is a versatile and flexible solution for those situations where you work shorter sessions with your device and only need a smaller and more flexible product

The Neck Strap is based on a 25mm webbing and has an adjustable length to fit people with different lengths and preferences. The strap has a padding to increase comfort and the padding can be slid freely on the strap to be able to place it where it provides the most comfort for the user.

Sacci Neck Strap works for control and regulation units or similar. The carabiners fit attachment points with a cross section of up to 7.5 mm in diameter and they have a width of 12 mm.
